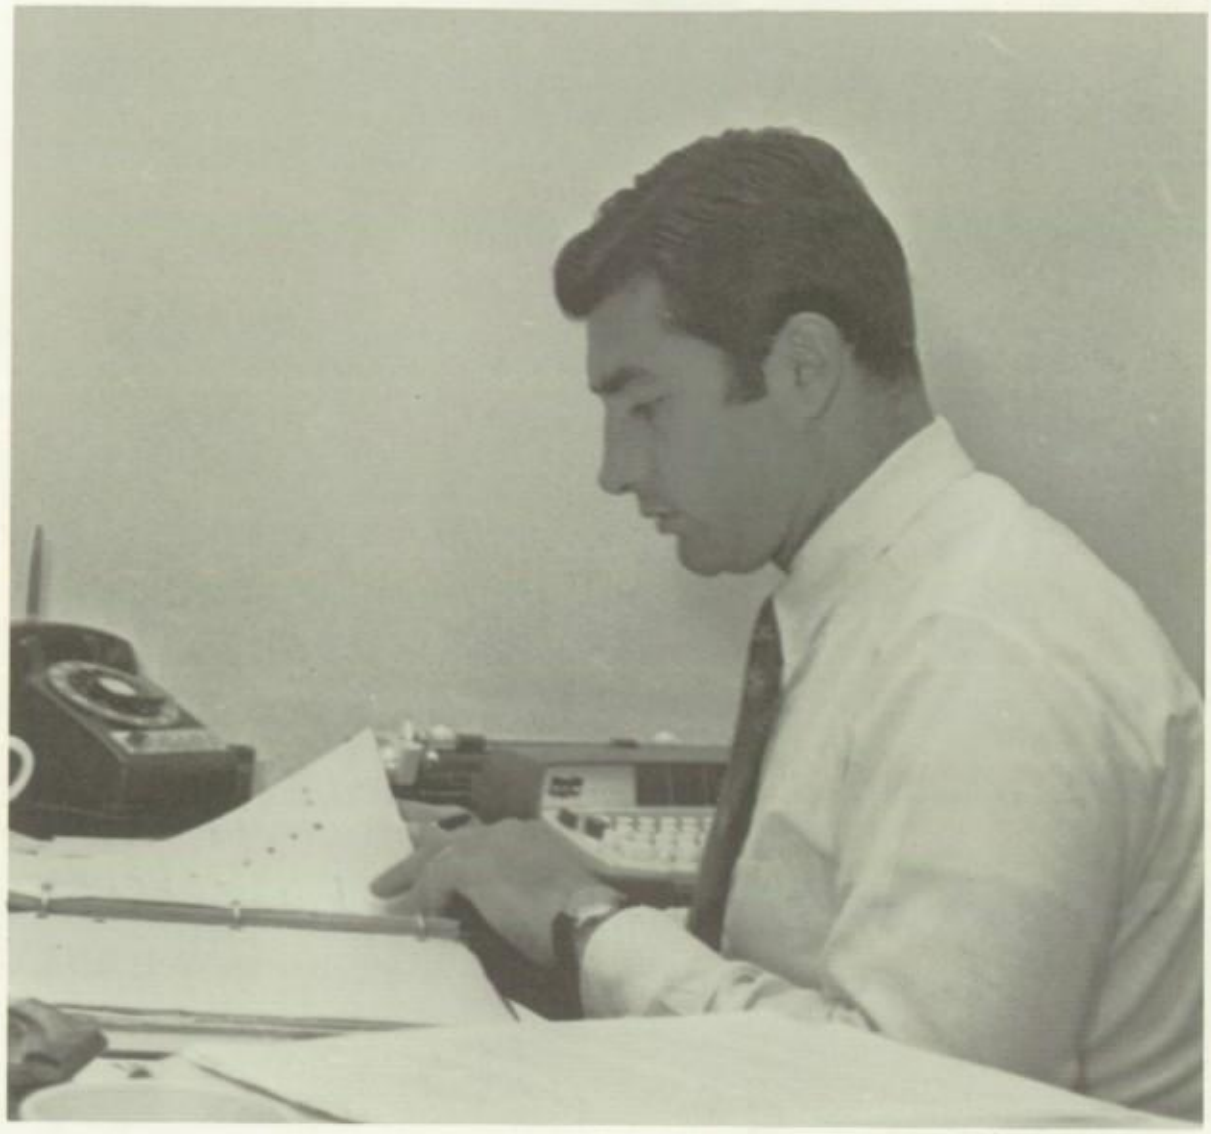
DEDICATION



Wherever people group together, individuals begin to emerge as leaders, and powerful influences. In the gradually emerging, evolving society of Trinity High School we recognize Mr. Lawrence Kostelac as such a figure.

Man is always reaching outward, always trying to grope for new horizons, for knowledge, for the few answers to the many questions. This striving for the inaccessible is man's enigma. Once started, nothing can alter the pace of this evolution. For man must always try ". . . to strive, to seek, to find . . . to follow knowledge like a sinking star, beyond the utmost bound of human thought." Man is driven to strive for perfection, to find his own meaning to his own immortality.

Trinity High School, as a group of individuals, administration, faculty, parents and students, involved in such a struggle has won for itself a special spirit, created through growing, learning, and living. Mr. Kostelac has embodied for us this dynamic spirit, calling each student to advance and progress, to move forward and make Trinity greater. We, the students of Trinity, in recognition of his enormous contribution to the spirit of our school, and to so many individual students, wish to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Kostelac. It is the concrete symbol of our deep respect and admiration.

PRINCIPAL

Best of everything
Brother Joseph Stinson

The graduating senior is filled with many and sometimes confusing emotions. Uppermost among these is justifiable pride in having met and conquered another important goal in life. For this accomplishment, I, as your new principal, and the faculty and staff congratulate you, young men and women of the class of 1970.

As you leave Trinity and move in a new direction, you experience joy. Alloyed to this joy is a tinge of sorrow at leaving a part of yourself here, and just a touch of uncertainty as you launch out into a new direction in life.

Assuming a new posture with respect to the persons, events, and things around you is unsettling. As we live we must frequently ask ourselves the hard question – "What's it all about?" It is only when we can honestly answer that question that our hope will thrive and our joy in living will grow apace.

It is a trite but accurate cliche that states, "Everybody wants progress, but nobody wants to change." This dilemma has faced each generation. What is happening around us is the almost simultaneous impact of numerous and powerful influences, each trying to mold our institutions according to a particular viewpoint of how human life is to be lived. Consequently, our society is filled with tensions due to the expectation on the part of some people for overnight modification. The real and proximate issues – race, warfare, ecological suicide, and rejection of authority must be faced and resolved by intelligent responses.

As you move from Trinity into a more adult role in society, it is our hope, and the hope of the Church of Harrisburg, that you will be taking with you the value-system of Christ: "Love God and love your neighbor." Equipped with a practical understanding of this motivation, your lives will necessarily be successful and meaningful.

With you go our wishes that God may bestow his choicest blessings on you and that, together with Him, your lives may be eminently successful.

Brother Joseph Stinson, F.S.C.

A philosopher recently stated that if we forget the past we are doomed to perpetual infancy. Wisdom and experience of the past cannot be ignored; it has to form a major portion of our system of values. Today the words which dominantly ring in our ears are: react, refuse, resist, rebel. Frustration will bury us all unless we retain trust in the truth of the past and hope in the honesty of the present.

St. Paul once wrote a letter of hope to the Romans, a people whose age was similar to ours. They are my sentiments as we see the Class of 1970 leave Trinity High School.

Think of God's mercy and worship, I beg you, in a way that is worthy of thinking beings – Do not model yourselves on the behaviour of the world around you, but let your behaviour change, modeled by your new mind. This is the only way to discover the will of God and know what is good, what it is that God wants, what is the perfect thing to do. – I urge each one of you not to exaggerate his real importance – Do not let your love be a pretence – Love each other as much as brothers should, and have a profound respect for each other. – If you have hope, this will make you cheerful – Do not give up if trials come. Treat everyone with equal kindness, never repay evil with evil – Do all you can to live at peace with everyone. – Love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbor; that is why it is the answer to every one of the commandments. If a person's faith is not strong enough, welcome him all the same therefore, you should make up your mind never to be the cause of your brother tripping or falling . . . Hold on to your belief, as between yourself and God – and consider the man fortunate who can make his decision without going against his conscience – the night is almost over, it will be daylight soon; let us arm ourselves and appear in the light.

TRINITY

I see these men Monday after a game, their bodies a mass of cleat marks, cuts and bruises. And week after week you see them pick up the pieces proudly and start over again. And your guts ache and your heart bleeds for them, because this is dedication, this is discipline, and this is total commitment to something you cling to, and something you believe in. And you know deep inside that you are teaching one out of every four boys in this school, things that cannot be learned from any textbook. Now ask me . . . was all the work worth it? I can only answer with what I believe in and that is . . . WHAT I HAVE I MUST GIVE . . . BECAUSE WHAT I KEEP WILL BE LOST FOREVER . . .

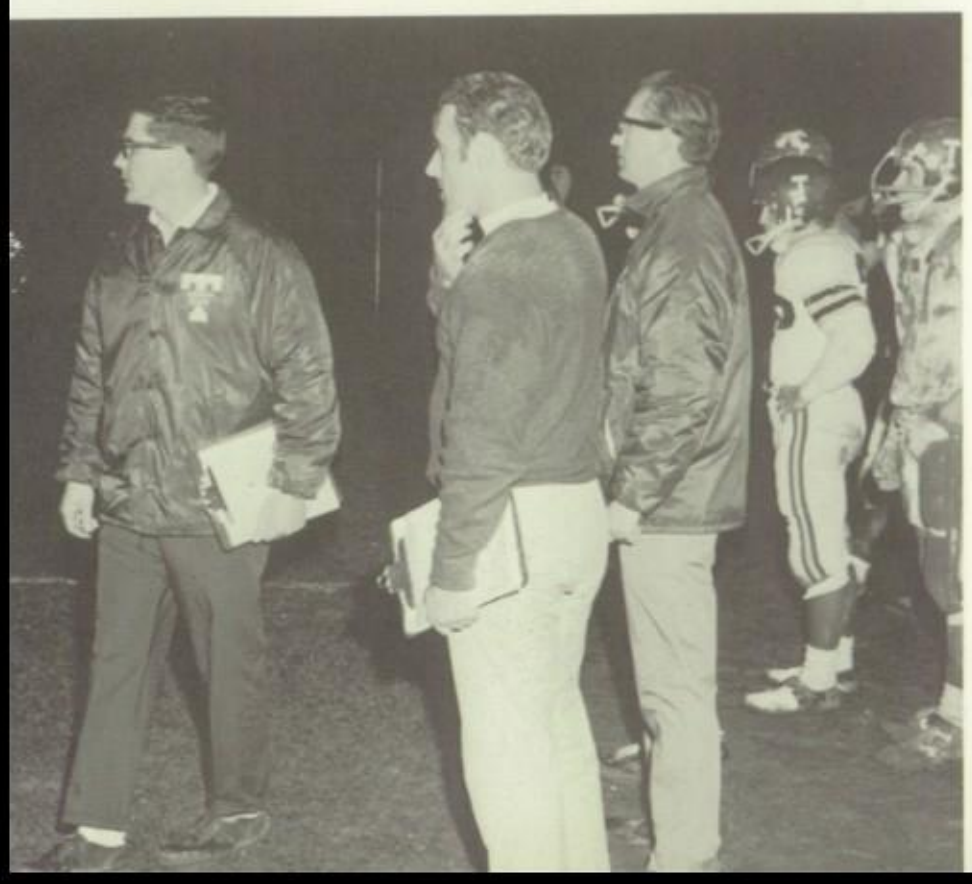
Terry Fletcher, member of the Homecoming Court



Everyone will remember Homecoming 1969. It rained, and all the escorts had trouble keeping themselves dry. While the boys were out slushing around in the mud, the fans were slushing around in the stands. The cheerleaders managed to keep dry with plastic bags, and Sharon Wells, our Queen, managed through it all with a smile.

Class Of 1970

As we look back on our days at Trinity, our memories are varied – happy, sad, satisfying, frustrating. It is here that we have shaped our future, for the future is built on the past, a product of time and experience. It is born of a dream, a vision, an idea, and stretches endlessly before us. Our experiences here have molded our values and given us an opportunity to discover ourselves. We have grown and matured during these years and now it is our turn to shape the world. By living each day to the fullest, strengthened by the past and hopeful for the future, we will make our contribution to history.

Acknowledgements

The 1970 Green and White Staff wishes to express its gratitude to all those who have contributed to the publication of our yearbook.

We thank our administration and faculty for their patient cooperation, especially:

Brother Joseph Stinson, for his encouraging message to the graduates and his continued support of our work;

Sister Elizabeth, our advisor, for her endless patience and guidance;

Brother Eric Henderson, for his help in photography;

We also wish to thank our Office staff for their generous help;

Mr. William Buser, of William's Studio, for excellent formal portraits;

Mr. Gary Reese, of William's Studio, who gave his time and talent to take the other activity pictures;

Mr. Neal Layser, representative of the American Yearbook Company, for his advice and generous assistance;

Hail Trinity, O Trinity,
We pledge our loyalty forever,
"Ad Summum Bonum", Always to guide us,
Teach us to grow in truth and dignity;
In days of challenge give us light,
To stalwart stand for right,
Your green-white banners proudly wave,
In praise of Thee O Trinity.

The shamrock is our symbol true,
A three-fold unity portraying;
God, the Father, Son and Spirit
Leading us onward to eternity;
And when we leave your sheltering halls,
Your image we shall wear,
Steadfast Christians, loyal and true;
To change our world we dare to do.

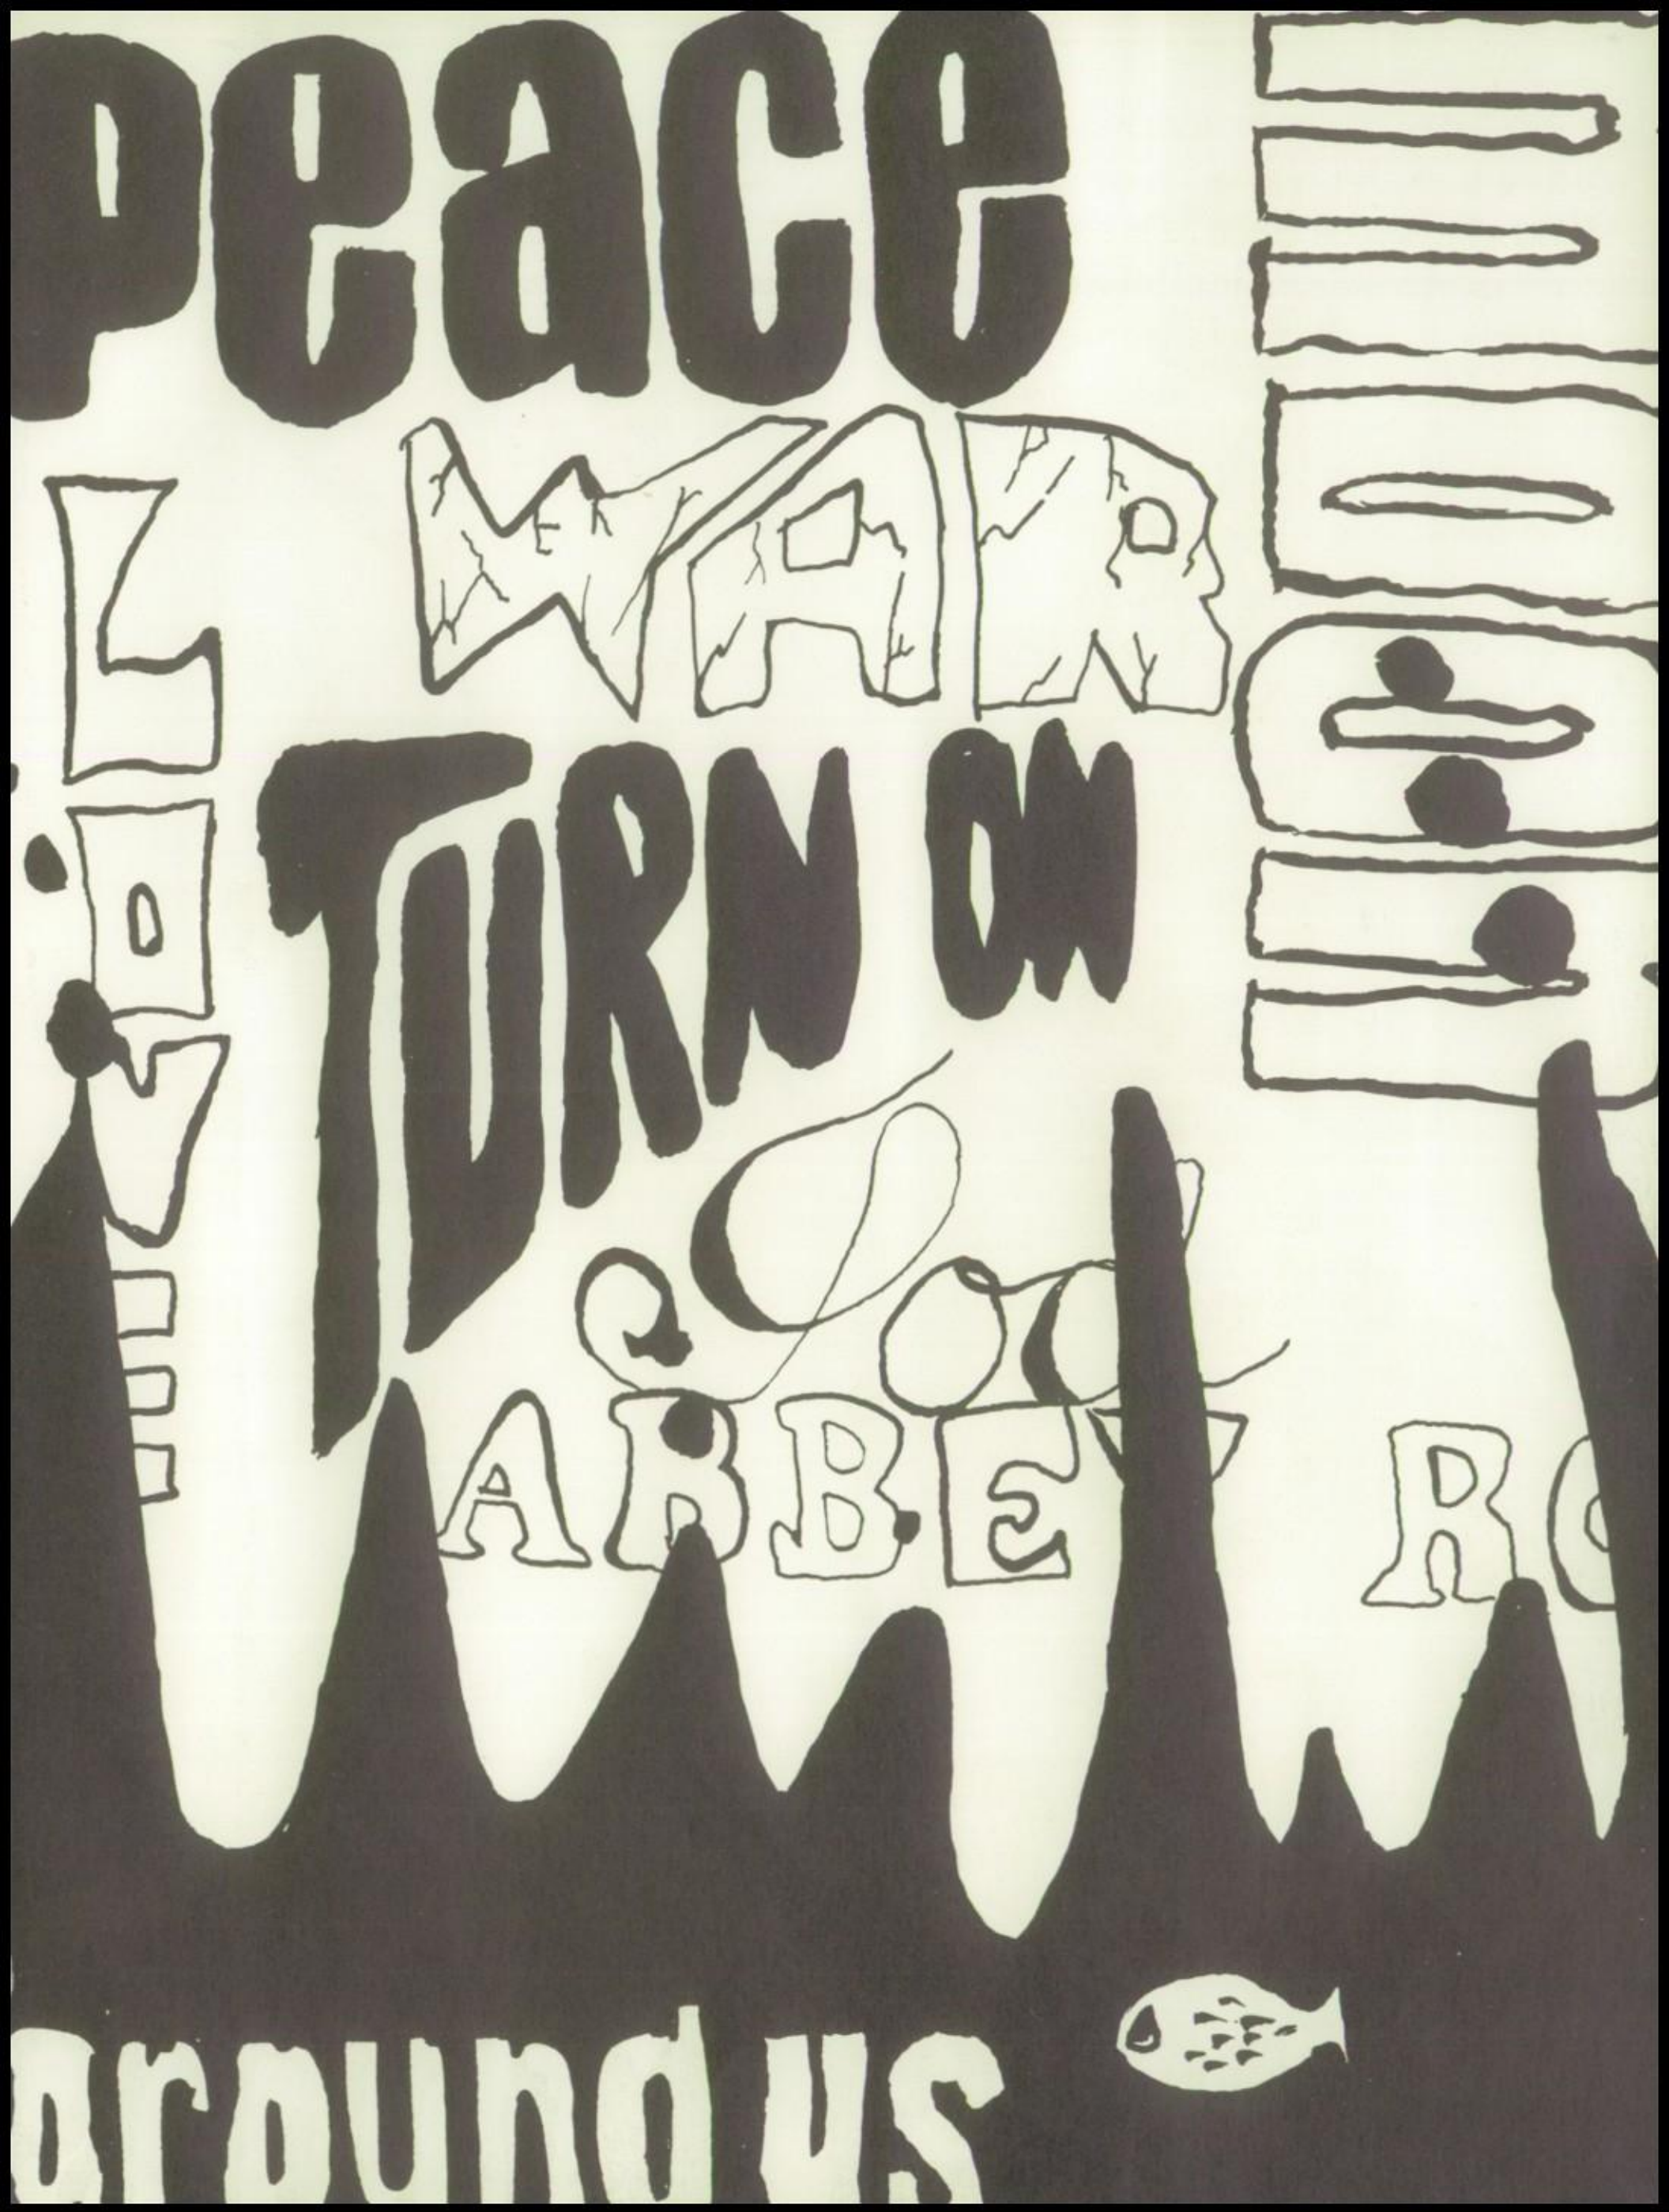
our discovery 1970 ....



peace
WAR
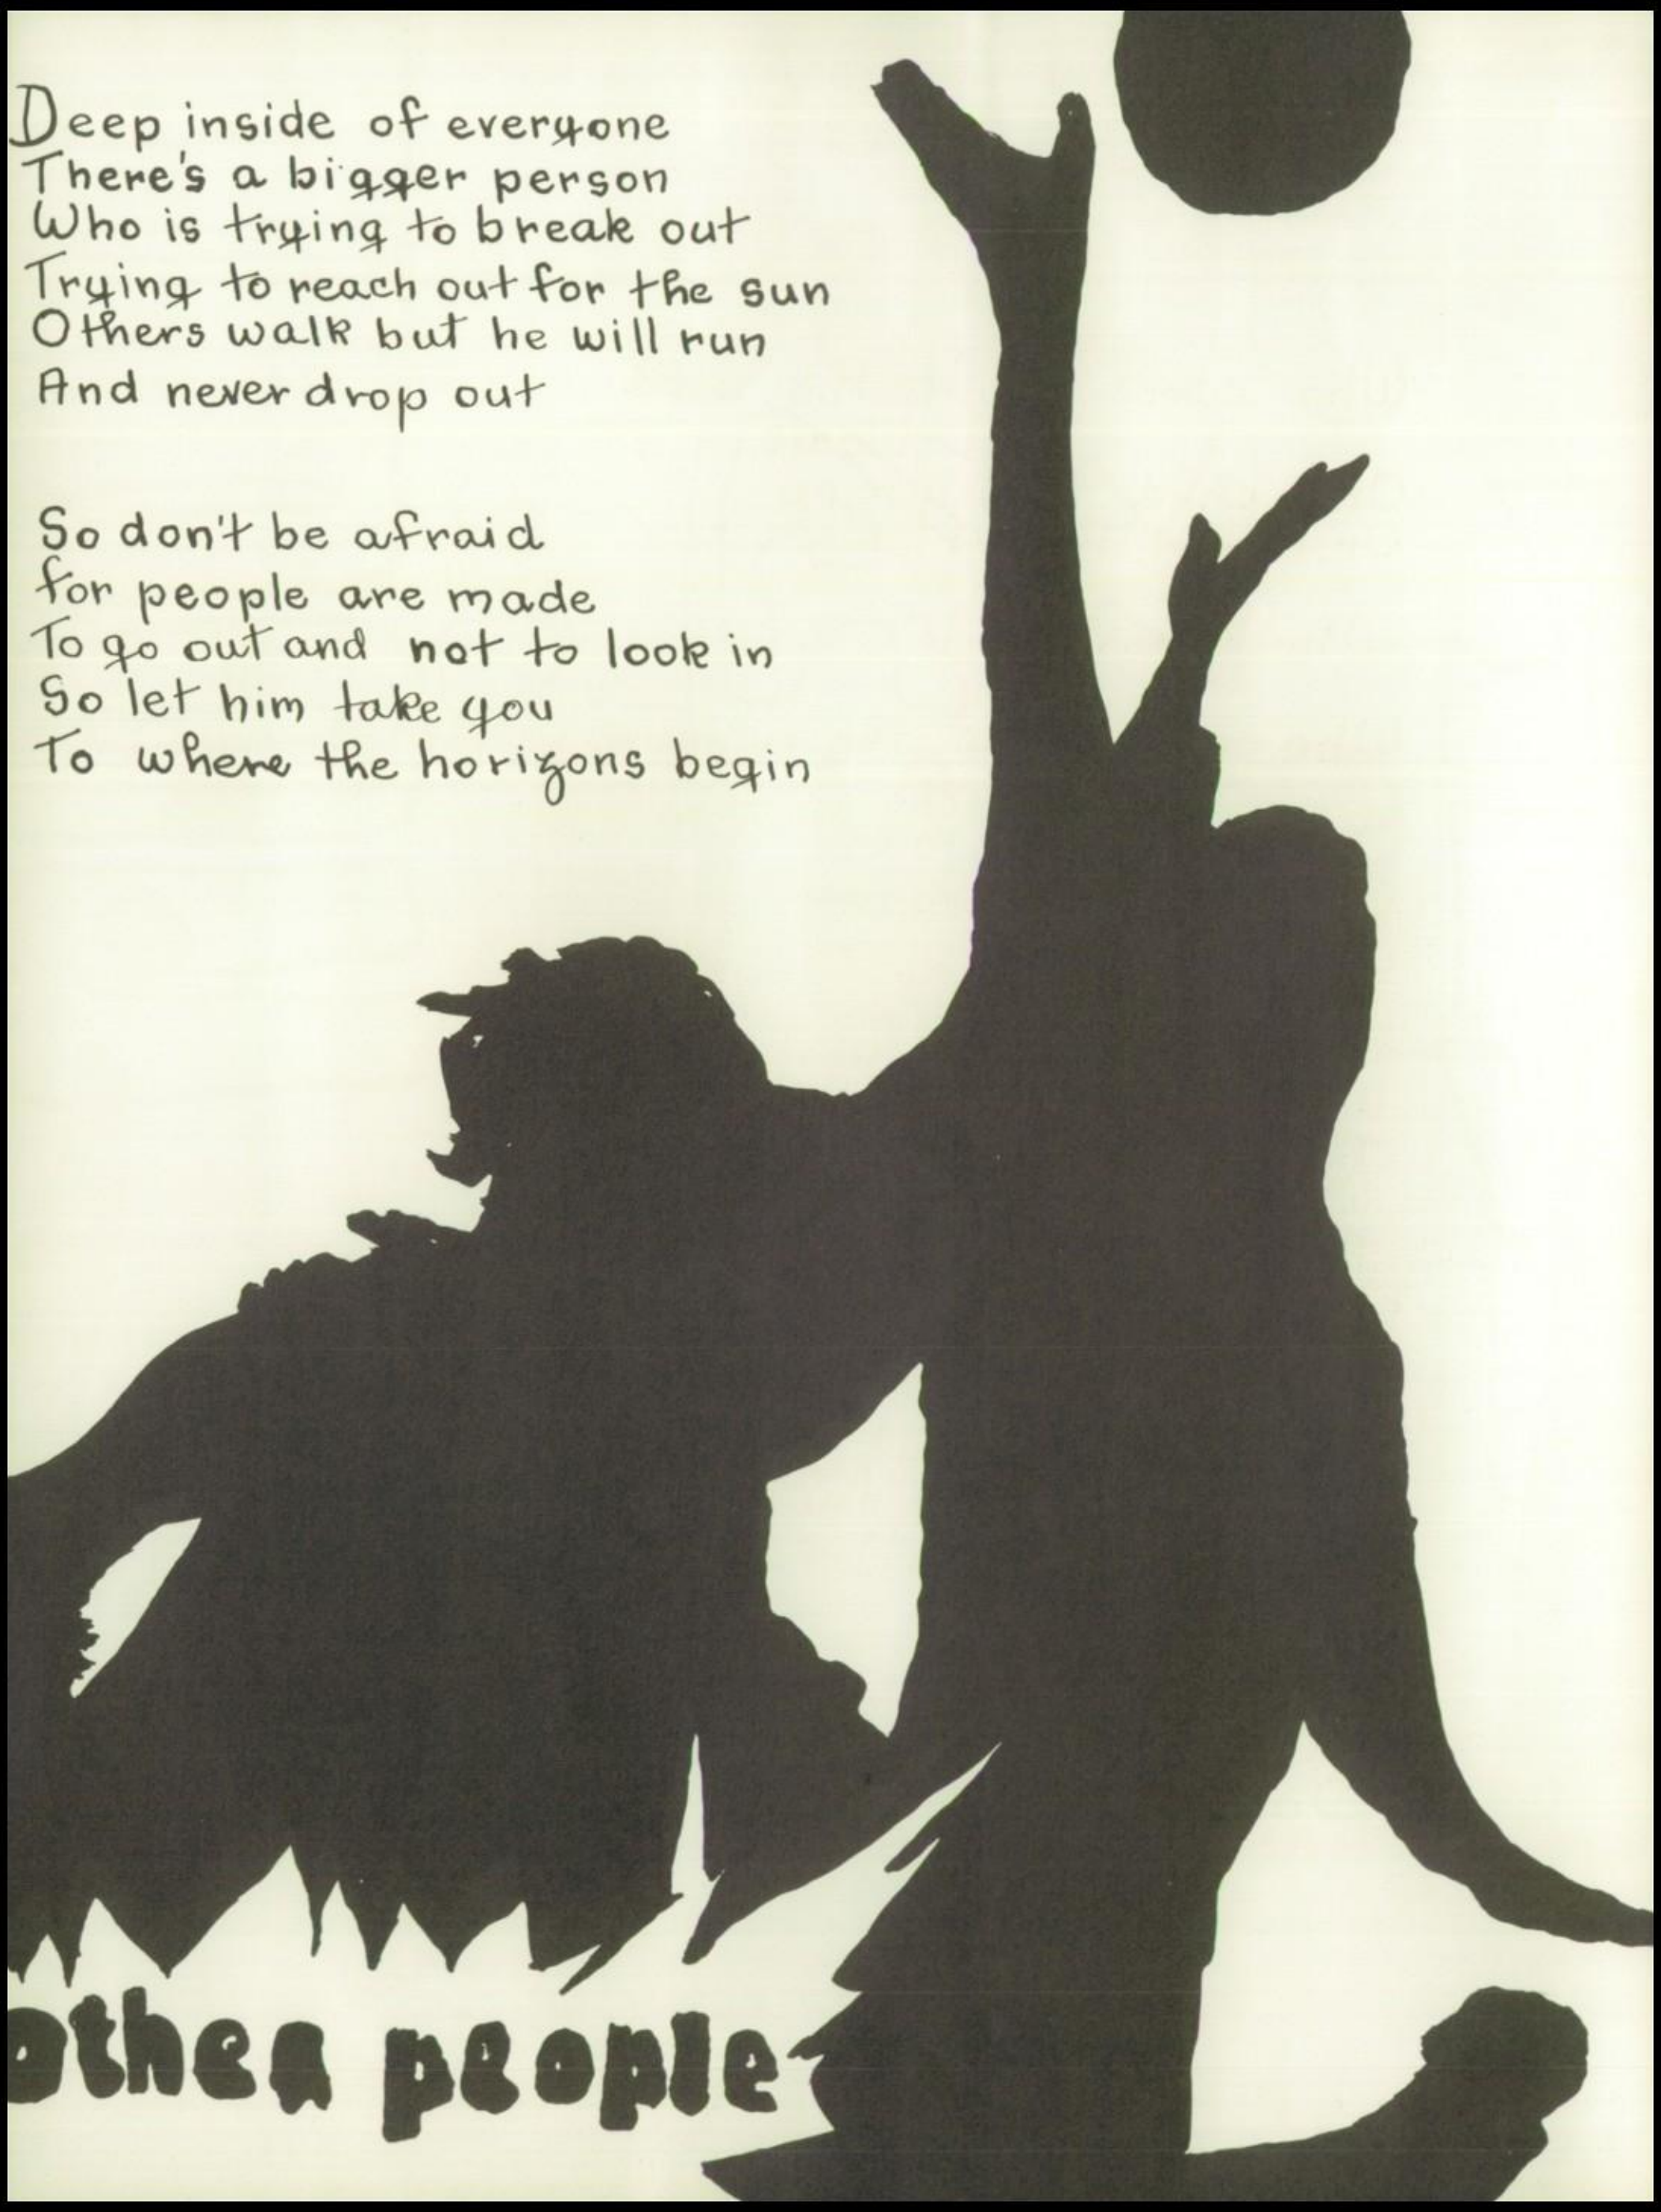
ARBE
around us

Deep inside of everyone
There's a bigger person
Who is trying to break out
Trying to reach out for the sun
Others walk but he will run
And never drop out

So don't be afraid
for people are made
To go out and not to look in
So let him take you
To where the horizons begin



Who cares about the wind
that blows
Or a child that grows
Or a tide that flows

Who cares

Who cares about the running in the sand
Or a bent old man
Or a reaching hand

Who cares

What will it take til we realize
That we only start to care
When we open our eyes
And be there
When somebody needs you
When somebody needs you

Who cares about the world today
So many people rushing different ways

Who cares

I care

Do you?

ourselves
